

GUIDE FOR NEW CUB SCOUT LEADERS

PINE BURR AREA COUNCIL, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

THE METHODS OF SCOUTING

To accomplish its purpose and achieve the overall goals of building character, learning citizenship, and developing personal fitness, Cub Scouting uses seven methods.

LIVING THE IDEALS. Cub Scouting's values are embedded in the Scout Oath, Scout Law, Cub Scout Motto, Cub Scout sign, handshake, and salute. These practices help establish and reinforce the program's values in children and the leaders who guide them.

BELONGING TO A DEN. The den — a group of six to eight children who are in the same grade — is the place where Cub Scouting starts. In the den, Cub Scouts develop new skills and interests, practice sportsmanship and good citizenship, and learn to do their best, not just for themselves but for the den as well. Each grade has its own den, or dens, and all of the dens together make up the Pack.

ADVANCEMENT. Recognition is important to everyone. The advancement plan provides fun for the Scouts, gives them a sense of personal achievement as they earn badges, and strengthens family understanding as adult family members and their den leader work with them on advancement projects.

INVOLVING FAMILY AND HOME. Whether a Cub Scout lives with two parents or one, a foster family, or other relatives, their family is an important part of Cub Scouting. Parents and adult family members provide leadership and support for Cub Scouting and help ensure that Scouts have a good experience in the program.

PARTICIPATING IN ACTIVITIES. Cub Scouts participate in a huge array of activities including games, projects, skits, stunts, songs, outdoor activities, trips, and service projects. Besides being fun, these activities offer opportunities for growth, achievement, and family involvement.

SERVING HOME AND NEIGHBORHOOD. Cub Scouting focuses on the home and neighborhood. It helps Scouts strengthen connections to their local communities, which in turn supports their growth and development.

WEARING THE UNIFORM. Cub Scout uniforms serve a dual purpose, demonstrating membership in the group (everyone is dressed alike) and individual achievement (Scouts wear the badges they've earned). Wearing the uniform to meetings and activities also encourages a neat appearance, a sense of belonging, and good behavior.

SO, YOU'RE A NEW LEADER!

Congratulations! And thank you for volunteering to make a difference in the lives of some really great children. We know you've got a million questions and concerns, which is why you're reading this guide. We want you to feel comfortable in your new role. Relax and rest assured that in just a few minutes, you'll know what you need to do an outstanding job.

What Do You Invest in Cub Scouting as a Den Leader?

- One afternoon or evening each week for a den meeting (or other schedule your den agrees to) that will allow your Scouts the time needed to successfully complete the Adventures.
- One evening each month for the pack meeting.
- One evening each month for a planning meeting with other pack leaders.
- Time spent in research and planning each month on such interesting subjects as native Americans, knights, the circus, or whatever the next monthly theme will be.
- Time invested in Cub Scout leader basic training.
- Cost of the Cub Scout leader uniform.

Your Contacts

Don't hesitate to ask for help. There are many people who want to help you provide the Scout experience for the kids in your den.

PREPARING FOR YOUR FIRST DEN MEETING

This plan takes you through your first den meeting. Afterwards, you will find additional meeting plans in the Den Leader Guide appropriate for your den (Lion, Tiger, Wolf, Bear, or Webelos/Arrow of Light) that your pack should help you with.

Before the Meeting

Contact the parents of your new Cub Scouts to introduce yourself, tell them when your den meeting will begin and end, where it will be held, and if you need any help, such as bringing snacks. It's always good to get parents involved from the beginning.

Gather the following items to be used in the meeting:

- poster board and marker for the den code of conduct.
- blank sheet of paper and pencil for each Scout.
- sign-up sheet for Scouts to bring healthy snacks.
- poster with the Scout Oath and a poster with the Scout Law for display.
- small U.S. flag.
- balloons for the “Bobcat Says” game. See page 8.
- popcorn sale forms

*A Scout is thrifty.

The annual popcorn sale is a great way for units and Scouts to raise the funds necessary for a fun program year. It reduces out-of-pocket expenses for families and teaches Scouts the importance of paying their own way.

Create a family information letter from you to each Scout family that includes:

- Your contact information
- Information about the importance of handbooks and uniforms, where to obtain them, and a reminder for Scouts to always wear their uniform and bring their handbook to the meeting, etc. You can also mention that they can get their uniform at the Scout Shop in Hattiesburg or on the Coast.
- Days, time, and location of your meetings.
- Weekly home assignment.

This week the home assignment should be:

› Bobcat requirement 1

(learn to say the Scout Oath, with help if needed)

› Bobcat requirement 2

(learn and say the Scout Law, with help if needed)

› Bobcat requirement 7 (with your parent or guardian, complete the exercises in the booklet "How to Protect Your Children From Child Abuse" found in the front of each Cub Scout handbook.)

- Other instructions pertinent to your den that the family should know.

THE DEN MEETING

Gathering

Recruit one new person to help you with a gathering activity and work with the Scouts as they arrive to complete a Den Code of Conduct by writing down the types of good behavior Cub Scouts should use at den meetings. Find other gathering activities in the Den Leader Guides, the Cub Scout Leader How-To Book, or on the Inter net.

The Meeting

Greet each family and introduce yourself. Provide them with the letter you created and remind them of important dates. Also ask if they had a chance to fill out the Family Talent Survey sheet given to them at registration. If they have not, have them fill one out and leave it with you tonight.

Opening

- Call the meeting to order by demonstrating the Cub Scout sign. Explain to the Scouts and parents the meaning of the sign and when to use the sign. See page 7.
- Show the Cubs how to do the Cub Scout salute. Then have them salute the flag of the United States of America and recite the Pledge of Allegiance. Ask any parents present to participate in the pledge with the Cub Scouts. (You might need to have the words displayed on a poster.) See page 7.

Closing

- Have the Cub Scouts form a circle. Teach them how to do the Cub Scout handshake. Have them shake their neighbor's hand. See below.
- Remind the parents to help their Scout and of any upcoming dates.
- Have Cub Scouts sign up to prepare and bring a healthy snack to the upcoming den meetings.
- Tell the Cub Scouts the importance of keeping your meeting space clean and neat, and have them help clean up the room.
- Thank everyone for attending.

SCOUT OATH

On my honor I will do my best
To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong,
mentally awake, and morally straight.

CUB SCOUT HANDSHAKE

Hold out your right hand just as you always do to shake hands. Put your first two fingers along the inside of the other child's wrist.

SCOUT LAW

A Scout is...

Trustworthy
Loyal
Helpful
Friendly
Courteous
Kind

Obedient Cheerful
Thrifty
Brave
Clean
Reverent

WEBELOS MEANS: WE'LL BE LOYAL SCOUTS.

Being LOYAL means that you will be true to your family, friends, Scout leaders, school and country; and, that you will keep the three promises of the Scout Oath.

CUB SCOUT SIGN

The Cub Scout sign is made by raising the right hand straight up high over the head with the palm forward. The first two fingers are wide apart and pointing up as in a V. The two extended fingers stand for the Scout Oath and Scout Law; and they look like the wolf's ears ready to listen to Akela. The thumb covers the nails of the ring and little fingers.

The Cub Scout sign is given when saying the Scout Oath and Scout Law. It is also used by Akela to ask for quiet and attention. Akela in the den is you, the leader. When you give this sign, Scouts should stop what they are doing and give you their complete attention.

CUB SCOUT SALUTE

A salute is a way to show respect. We salute our flag to show respect for our country.

For the Cub Scout salute, use your right hand. Hold your fingers as you do for the Cub Scout sign. Keep the two straight fingers close together. Touch the tips of those fingers to your cap. If you are not wearing a cap, touch your right eyebrow.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

CUB SCOUT MOTTO

Do Your Best

You can do this as a cheer. You ask the Cub Scouts,

“What’s our motto?”

and they respond,

“Do ... Your ... Best!”

three times —
getting louder each time.

GAMES & MEETING ACTIVITIES

- Have the Scouts play a game to get to know each other. You'll find additional games in the the Cub Scout Leader How-To Book, or on the Internet. Copy People Bingo (opposite page) or create your own.
- Review what Cub Scouts listed as positive behaviors during the Gathering Activity. Together as a den, create your own Den Code of Conduct.
- Teach the Scouts and parents the Scout Oath and Scout Law. See page 6.
- Teach the Scouts and parents what “Webelos” means. See page 6.
- Play the “Bobcat Says Game” (below).

BOBCAT SAYS GAME

Write out the 12 points of the Scout Law as seen on page 6. Cut each word into a strip and insert each one into a separate balloon. You should have 12 balloons, each with a strip inside. Blow up the balloons and place them in a large basket or bag. Divide the Cub Scouts into two teams and line them up next to each other with the basket of balloons between them.

Mark a starting and finish line. Each scout will select a balloon, run to the finish line, sit on the balloon to pop it, retrieve the paper inside, then run back to their team and tag the next Scout to go. Once all of the balloons have been popped, the den leader calls “Fix!” and the Cub Scouts then work together to get themselves into the correct order for the Scout Law. Have each Scout read their line, then have them all recite it together.

Note: If you have more than 12 Scouts in your den, include lines from the Cub Scout motto in separate balloons. If you have fewer than 12, have the Scouts go twice or have others fill in.

CUB SCOUT SPIRIT SONG:

I've got that Cub Scout spirit Up
in my head,
Deep in my heart,
Down in my feet.
I've got that Cub Scout spirit All over me,
All over me to stay.

Find more games in the Den Leader Guides and Cub Scout Leader How-To Book or on the Internet.

GREAT GATHERING TIME ACTIVITY: PEOPLE BINGO

Find a different person to sign his or her name in each box. When you get all boxes signed, call out BINGO!

I have a pet.	I was born in -----. (month)	I play baseball.	I have a pool.
My shoes have no laces.	I have curly hair.	My name has more than seven letters.	I was at a different school last year.
My favorite food is pizza.	I was born in another state.	I have been to the zoo.	I write with my left hand.
I know the principal's name.	I speak another language.	I walk to school.	I have read a chapter book.
I have a summer birthday.	I like vegetables.	I know how to swim.	I have traveled to another country.

BOBCAT REQUIREMENTS

All Scouts earn the Bobcat badge upon joining — they learn the Scout Oath, Scout Law, handshake, salute, sign, and motto. After receiving the Bobcat badge, Scouts work on rank requirements based on their grade or age.

As a den leader, you will guide your Scouts in earning the Bobcat badge as soon as possible, usually within their first 30 days.

1. LEARN AND SAY THE SCOUT OATH (with help)

Before Cub Scouts agree to the Scout Oath, they need to know what it means.

ON MY HONOR I WILL DO MY BEST;

Saying “on my honor” is like saying “I promise.” It means that you will do your best to do what the Scout Oath says.

The Scout Oath has three promises. Let’s look at what they mean.

TO DO MY DUTY TO GOD AND MY COUNTRY AND TO OBEY THE SCOUT LAW;

A duty is something you’re expected to do. At home, you might be expected to make your bed or take out the trash. You also have duties to God and to your country. You do your duty to God by following the teaching of your family and religious leaders. You do your duty to your country by being a good citizen and obeying the law. You also promise to live by the 12 points of the Scout Law.

TO HELP OTHER PEOPLE AT ALL TIMES;

Many people need help. A friendly smile and a helping hand make life easier for others. By helping other people, you are doing a Good Turn and making our world a better place.

TO KEEP MYSELF PHYSICALLY STRONG, MENTALLY AWAKE, AND MORALLY STRAIGHT.

The last part of the Scout Oath is about taking care of yourself. You stay physically strong when you eat the right foods and get plenty of exercise. You stay mentally awake when you work hard in school, learn all you can, and ask questions. You stay morally straight when you do the right thing and follow the 12 points of the Scout Law.

2. LEARN AND SAY THE SCOUT LAW (with help)

The Scout Law has 12 points. Each is a goal for every Scout. Scouts do their best to live up to the Scout Law every day. It is not easy to do, but a Scout always tries (they do his best).

A SCOUT IS...

TRUSTWORTHY

A Scout tells the truth and keeps his promises. People can depend on him.

LOYAL

A Scout is true to his family, friends, Scout leaders, school, and country.

HELPFUL

A Scout volunteers to help others without expecting a reward.

FRIENDLY

A Scout is a friend to every one, even people who are very different from him.

COURTEOUS

A Scout is polite to every one and always uses good manners.

KIND

A Scout treats others as he wants to be treated. He never harms or kills any living thing without good reason.

OBEDIENT

A Scout follows the rules of his family, school and pack. He obeys the laws of his community and country. Every day, he does his best to follow the 12 points of the Scout Law.

CHEERFUL

A Scout looks for the bright side of life. He cheerfully does tasks that come his way. He tries to make others happy.

THRIFTY

A Scout works to pay his way. He uses time, property and natural resources wisely.

BRAVE

A Scout can face danger even if he is afraid. He stands for what is right even if others laugh at him.

CLEAN

A Scout keeps his body and mind fit. He keeps his home and his community clean.

REVERENT

A Scout is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties. He respects the beliefs of others.

3. SHOW THE CUB SCOUT SIGN

(and tell what it means)

4. SHOW THE CUB SCOUT HANDSHAKE

(and tell what it means)

When you shake hands with another Cub Scout, place the first two fingers of your right hand along the inside of his right wrist.

5. GIVE THE CUB SCOUT SALUTE

(and tell what it means)

Salute with your right hand. Hold your first two fingers close together. Touch the tips to your cap. Touch your eyebrow if you are not wearing a cap. This is the way to show respect to your leaders. You salute the flag to show respect to our country. And you can greet another Cub Scout this way.

6. KNOW THE CUB SCOUT MOTTO

“Do Your Best” is one of the most important things Cub Scouts learn. When Scouts compare themselves to other people, they can become complacent (if they’re high achievers) or discouraged (if they have to work harder to accomplish the same goals). Focusing on doing their personal best helps them feel good about themselves and see their potential for doing even better. Help kids see that no one can find fault with them if they always do their best.

7. GO OVER YOUTH PROTECTION

(with parent or guardian)

Read and complete the exercises in the booklet “How to Protect Your Children From Child Abuse” found in the front of each Cub Scout handbook.

DENS ARE PART OF THE PACK

The Cubmaster leads the pack and the pack meetings. He or she is a primary source of information for the group and will be able to answer most of your questions.

The monthly pack meeting brings together den leaders, Scouts from every den, and their families to showcase everything the Scouts have learned and done in their individual den meetings. The pack meeting gives Scouts a larger experience beyond their own den, and helps them to connect their individual activities to the entire Cub Scouting program.

Planning Pack Meetings

While the Cubmaster is responsible for leading the pack meeting, he or she plans and conducts it with the help of other leaders. Every den shares the responsibility by doing its assigned parts. The challenge is to conduct a brisk, fast-moving meeting that will hold the interest of Scouts and family members. The secret to a good pack meeting is planning carefully to include a balance of seriousness and fun, the involvement of many people, and a lively pace.

CUBMASTER'S FIRST 8 WEEKS OF RESPONSIBILITIES

Week 1

- Create a My.Scouting.org account and take Youth Protection Training and Hazardous Weather Training. See pages 21 and 20.
- Contact all den leaders to confirm date and location of all den meetings.
- Take position-specific training.
- Contact all den leaders about selling popcorn. See page 21.
- Conduct leaders meeting to get acquainted, plan first pack meeting and answer any questions.
- Assign parts of pack meeting to dens and provide materials on what to do at the pack meeting.
- Plan next 3 months of pack meetings and pack activities.
- Encourage all leaders to take online trainings.
- Inform leaders of upcoming leader training sessions and invite them to attend roundtable meetings.

Week 2

- Contact pack committee chairman to make sure that all committee members understand their role.
- Follow up with den leaders to see how first den meeting went and answer any questions.
- Plan on attending Cub Launch. See page 24.
- Conduct an exciting Popcorn Kickoff. See page 21.

Week 3

- Talk with each den leader about their den meetings. Discuss any concerns and answer any questions.
- Ask if the den leaders need any materials for their den meeting or the pack meeting.
- Ensure that each den has turned in the Cub rank advancements to the pack advancement chairman, so that awards may be acquired on time.

CUBMASTER'S FIRST 8 WEEKS OF RESPONSIBILITIES

Week 4 – Pack Meeting Week

Week 7

- Plan and prepare for Bobcat Ceremony that will be held at the next pack meeting.
- Ensure all new Scouts have completed the Bobcat rank.
- Make sure that the ceremony will be memorable for the Scouts and parents.

Week 8 – Pack Meeting Week

- Conduct the second pack meeting after sign-up.
- Conduct impressive Bobcat ceremony.
- Communicate how to turn in popcorn orders.
- Remind parents of popcorn order turn in date.
- Plan for the pack to attend a district/council Cub Scout event.

Cubmasters: Get trained with leader-specific training! See page 20.

There are no hard-and-fast rules for planning and conducting pack meetings. Each meeting must be planned individually, keeping in mind the business items to be covered, the ceremonies to be held, and what is necessary for balance in the way of games, songs, cheers and other fun. Elements of a successful pack meeting include the following:

- A detailed, well-planned, written program that is conducted without delays.*
- All equipment and materials on hand before the meeting begins.
- The meeting place is safe, clean, and large enough.
- A good seating arrangement.
- The meeting is no longer than an hour and opens and closes on time.
- Announcements and speeches are not too long.
- The meeting is planned so that every den participates in some way.
- Impressive recognition, advancement, and graduation ceremonies are held.

* Visit scouting.org/programs/cub-scouts/leaders/cubmaster-resources/pack-meeting-plans for meeting plans or scan the QR code below:

SUGGESTED PACK MEETING FORMATS

Before the Meeting

Adult leaders in the pack gather early to be sure the meeting place is prepared; the room is set up, exhibits and displays are prepared and equipment is ready. Plan a gathering activity that provides interesting things for Scouts and families to do while waiting for everyone else to arrive.

Opening

A brief ceremony marks the beginning of the meeting. Opening pack ceremonies often consist of a flag presentation, a brief prayer, or a song.

Skit/Song

The program section of the meeting may include presentations and performances by the dens that demonstrate things the Scouts learned during the month, activities involving the entire audience, or a featured event.

Recognition

An important part of the pack meeting is formal recognition given to the Cub Scouts who have earned rank badges, Adventure belt loops, religious emblems, or other awards, and the leaders who have earned training awards or other awards.

Closing

The closing begins with announcements about special events, upcoming activities, and the date of the next pack meeting, followed by Cubmaster’s Minute and a closing ceremony.

After the Meeting

Following the pack meeting, some packs provide refreshments for an informal fellowship session, and the leaders and Scouts help put the meeting space back in order.

Ceremony Suggestions

Simple ceremonies open and close pack meetings and mark important events or accomplishments in the lives of the Scouts and families.

- Flag ceremonies teach Scouts how to handle and display the American flag.
- Induction ceremonies welcome new Scouts and their families into the pack.
- Advancement ceremonies celebrate the completion requirements for Bobcat, Tiger, Wolf, Bear, and Webelos ranks and the Arrow of Light Award.
- Closing ceremonies bring the meeting to a close and send everyone home with inspirational ideas to remember.

After each section of material, you will answer questions about that section's topic. Completion is noted automatically in the BSA training records database if the module is experienced online. To begin this training, visit My.Scouting.org.
